Report

During the past year, the Alpha Delta Chapter has grown both in numbers as well as a chapter. In the Spring of 2019, the Upsilon class welcomed 9 new brothers and in the Fall we welcomed the 11 new brothers of Phi Class. Pi Lambda Phi was also given a four star diamond accreditation, which is the highest possible ranking for a greek letter organization on Temple's campus. This makes us one of two fraternities to hold this status. Another accomplishment is our academics, we have made our way back to having the highest cumulative GPA on our campus. We look forward to continue developing our organization in an upward direction and keep welcoming new brothers into our chapter. Our brothers keep doing amazing things and I am excited to share them with you throughout this report. Enjoy!

Fraternally,
Tyler Vogel

Philly Marathon

A few of our brothers ran the Philadelphia Marathon, including Nicky Mottola who was joined by his pledge Brother Harry Mckinley in the last 3 miles of the run to support him through the intense pain he was in.

Philanthropy

The Brothers of PA Alpha Delta have been giving back to the community we love so much in many ways. We have worked with other greek letter organizations, not just the IFC to clean up our blocks as well as work face to face with the people in our community.

Careers, Internships and Post Grad

We are losing a few of our brothers to the real world after graduation this spring

Tommy Walsh: Data Analyst for Philly Foodworks and got selected to present research on SEPTA and a revenue neutral carbon tax at the Temple Symposium for undergrad research

Tyler Ulanowicz: Product Development Engineer at Active Protective Technologies

Dan Moss: Model-Based Systems Engineer intern at Gryphon Technologies

Andrew Tarsa: Student Teaching at Kensington Health Science Academy. Will also be helping English Learners in the classroom

Alex Rosenberg: Attending George Washington University for a Masters degree in Legislative Affairs

James Macy: Accepted an audit internship at RSM LLP

Dan McShane: Internship with Lockheed Martin

PiLam's Abroad

This semester we are missing two of our brothers, Mahim and George, as they are studying abroad in Rome! We hope they have better luck talking to women in Europe than they do in the States!
